

AROUND the TOWNSHIP

By Henry Alderman

President Lawrence Sharpe of the Niles junior chamber of commerce decided Bill Cavanaugh should pay a fine at meeting the other night for speaking out of turn.

"How much?", asked Cavanaugh.

"I'll leave that to your own discretion", answered Sharpe.

"I've no conscience", said Cavanaugh, as he put in a penny in the kitty.

The almond tree in Frank McGowan's front yard is in full bloom.

We will charge H. L. Scott the shoe man, nothing for the information that Joe Viviers' feet are hurting him something fierce and that he would give anything for a pair of new brogans that would give him relief.

A. J. Cadro is now the Register's local advertising manager. He knows his business; and that fact, combined with the Register's large circulation, will make money for anyone who buys space.

The George Sladks have a new sign up on the Niles-Centerville highway, which points the way to their place.

When the township group goes to Oakland this week to demand action from the supervisors on the old highway bridge they should take Mrs. Thane along.

We don't know if Doe, Grea has any enemies in the township but the silver dollar he gave to the junior chamber of commerce for dues the other night was twisted all out of shape. Looked like it had been hit by bullet.

Dr. Herman Dyberg, who has been practicing dentistry in Niles for some months, is leaving to establish a practice in Oakland. We wish him luck.

Col. Harvey Braun, local weather prophet objects to being called "Col". He says he served in the navy. He is still Colonel to us. If they don't have colonels in the navy, they should have.

CENTERVILLE—Judge Joseph Kennedy of Oakland was the speaker at the breakfast following the annual communion of the Centerville Knights of Columbus Sunday morning. Sixty-five were present. George Kommes, president, had charge of arrangements, assisted by George Coit and Frank Souza.

SCOUTS TO GO
HAYWARD POOL

NILES—First annual swimming meet of the southern division of the Boy Scouts of America will be held in the Hayward plunge on Thursday evening, March 11, through the co-operation of the plunge management.

Township troops plan to attend the affair. Any township scout is eligible to go and the public is invited. All scouts will be permitted to swim at a special low rate and all those who participate will have their admission refunded. The plunge will furnish prize ribbons for winning contestants.

CENTERVILLE—Washington Township residents were shocked to hear of the sudden death of John Lowman, formerly deputy coroner at the Chapel of the Palms in Centerville with which he had been connected for the past five years. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the Chapel of the Chimes in Oakland.

The deceased is survived by his widow, Helen A. Lowman, and a daughter, June E. Lowman. He was born at Mansfield, Ohio, on Dec. 29, 1882 and was 55 years of age at the time of his death. For 20 years he had been connected with Fowler and Lowman Funeral Parlors in Alameda and resigned from the Chapel of the Palms about a month ago to accept a position with Do Young and Conklin undertakers at Stockton.

He suffered a stroke on Monday, Feb. 22, and was found lying on the floor by other employees of the mortuary. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital and became unconscious shortly after, not regaining consciousness before his death which occurred at 1:30 a. m. last Friday morning.

Mrs. Lowman was waiting for him at seven o'clock. It was thought that she had gone to a picture show and she was not notified. When he had not arrived at 10 o'clock, she became worried and went to investigate, finding that he had been taken to the hospital. When she arrived he was unconscious.

The deceased is also survived by three sisters and a brother in Mansfield, Ohio.

NILES—Bob Zwissig, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Zwissig, and Niles troop member, is the first scout in the Oakland area council to register the national Boy Scout jamboree to be held in Washington, D. C., from June 30 to July 9.

The trip will include a 30 day itinerary, in which stops will be made in principal cities of the U. S., including Salt Lake City, Chicago, Detroit, Philadelphia, Jacksonville, Fla., New Orleans, El Paso and Dallas.

The boys will camp 10 days in Washington. About 25,000 scouts, leaders and scout visitors from foreign countries.

About 90 scouts and leaders are expected to attend the jamboree from the Oakland area. W. T. Lindsay, assistant scout executive of the council, will be in charge of the trip.

The trip is open to any scout who has had six months scouting experience and at least 10 days of camping experience and who has the recommendation of his troop.

The 1937 jamboree was originally planned for 1935; but was postponed because of the infantile paralysis epidemic in Virginia of that year.

In lieu of the trip at that time, a tour of the country was made by scouts. George Mathiesen of Centerville was the only township scout to make that trip.

His enthusiastic reports are responsible for the wide interest this year among scouts.

COMMITTEE MAKES NEW ATTEMPT TO SAVE BRIDGE
OVER ALAMEDA CREEKBR. R. H. BENNETT
DIES SUDDENLY

NILES—Another attempt to secure the assistance of the Board of Supervisors in saving the Niles bridge will be made today (Thursday) when a committee from Washington Township appears before the board. The delegation will be headed by Bestor Robinson, Oakland attorney, retained by the bridge committee.

The delegates are: Niles—F. V. Jones, Lester Duffey, Judge J. A. Silva, Leon Solon, Lawrence Sharpe, Philip Moore, F. Cesari and Clement Donovan; Centerville, Frank T. Dusterberry, Howard Chadbourne; Newark—Louis Ruschin; Alvarado—George Hellwig; Irvington—O. N. Hirsch.

It is claimed by those interested that the business sections of these towns will be damaged if the bridge is destroyed as it will slow up traffic among the communities, that the new highway will present serious traffic hazards for school children and other pedestrians and that the entire section will suffer because of detriment to trucking from the interior valleys via Niles Canyon to the Bay bridges.

Many contend that even though the road is not left open there is no reason to destroy the bridge which might offer transit in case of any catastrophe which might close the new highway bridge.

PARTY GIVEN

Masonic Home News
by
JAMES H. HEATH

DECOTO, Feb. 3.—San Francisco Pyramide No. 1, scots, forged ahead in friendship's chain, between the organization and the Decoto Masonic Home, Sunday afternoon by sponsoring a high class entertainment by our Sciot Otis' orchestra, of which 18 members were present.

It was a well balanced program, the musical numbers by the orchestra consisting of 15 "wind" instruments and three violins, supported by trombone and accordion solos, and fancy dancing in costume by two young ladies, the youngest a tot of six years and vocal duets by adults. Although considerable time was occupied with the bill the entire program was heard with keen interest. There were no dull moments.

Sciot (Bob) Elder, Toparch of the San Francisco pyramid, expressed the pleasure of his fellow Scrots in the bringing of yet another of the annual entertainment to the brothers and sisters of the masonic Home and his announcement that undoubtedly the pyramid would be on hand with another visit in the early part of 1938, was received by great applause of the large percentage of the members of the home in the assembly hall.

Besides serving as leader of the band Sciot Otis acted as master of ceremonies, in which capacities he proved to be a past master.

The gathering was honored with the presence of Sciot Elmer E. Gunther, Deputy Supreme Pharaoh in the California domain, who was introduced.

Incidentally the general Toparch Bob Elder was the only Scio among the visitors wearing the Sciot fez.

The members of the visiting party, numbering more than 50, enjoyed a basket picnic lunch, with table service, coffee, etc., supplied by the home. In her absence on account of illness, Mrs. Catherine Pankow took the place of "Mother" Cornelia Bernstein in the home hosts of the banquet hall.

Since the 1936 visit of the San Francisco Scrots one of its most popular members, Edward M. Herndon, Mountain View Lodge 194, Mt. View, for several years a member of the masonic home family, has been called by death. Herndon, a composer of music and a player in the scrots band, had the honor, on one or two visits of the pyramid to lead the band in the playing of his own and the compositions of other composers. His passing was tenderly referred to on Sunday by many of the Scrots.

CLUB USHERS IN SPRING

NILES-- Spring was ushered in at the Country Club of Washington Township Tuesday with a talk on some of our garden favorites by Mrs. Dora Mae Scudder of the California Nursery. Mrs. Scudder spoke of the antiquity of the rose, of modern rose culture, of the permanency of form and color of the daffodil through years of hybridization, and of the origin and development of the tulip. Others contributing to the program: rMs. Harriett Downer of San Mateo, Mrs. Ruth Callkit, also of San Mateo, who accompanied Mrs. Downer, Mrs. E.C. Dawson and Mrs. J.C. Thane.

President Mrs. C. E. Martenstein announced the last meeting for the year of the Alameda county federation at Montclair club on Thursday, March 25. Mrs. T.N. Alexander, chairman of the garden committee, announced a bridge dessert to be given by her committee April 5.

Mesdames Charles Myrick, Mrs. Josephine Brown, Mrs. E.A. Ellsworth, Mrs. T.N. Alexander and Mrs. R.L. Pond were appointed delegates to the county convention.

Mrs. Harvey Braun, chairman of the Mardi Gras, reported $85 net proceeds of the February affair.

RECIPES

VEAL PORKOLT (Hungarian dish sometimes called Veal Paprikas)

Saute two chopped onions in a quarter pound of lard until golden brown, add one teaspoon paprika and cook one minute. Lift out the onion. In the seasoned lard, sauté two pounds diced veal. (Shoulder does nicely). When lightly browned, return the onions, add one-half teaspoon salt and a little water. Cook slowly one and one-half hours or till tender. Add a little hot water from time to time to prevent burning. One minute before serving, add one cup sour cream and a few drops lemon juice. A spoonful of sour cream may top the dish. Circle with creamy mashed potatoes. Six portions.

BEEF GULYAS (Goulash)

Have two pounds of lean stewing beef cut in even inch cubes. Sauté three large minced onions in one-quarter pound lard till golden brown, add one teaspoon paprika and cook one minute. Longer cooking at this point will give a bitter taste. Lift out the onions, brown the meat in the lard over a hot flame. When nice and brown, return the onions, add one shredded green pepper, one minced tomato and one teaspoon salt. After the tomato liquid has been absorbed, add a half cup of water occasionally to keep the meat from burning. Cook it on a very low flame for one and one-half hours. Add peeled, halved potatoes and cook thirty minutes longer. Serves five or six.

We Americans sometimes are tempted to tamper with the ingredients in dealing with foreign dishes. That is a mistake. Any changes in these dishes will spoil the flavor. In making the gulyas (with slight variations, these meat dishes are called porkolt or paprikas, too), remember these important details. Don't brown the onions as you would for fried onions. Cook them slowly till they are a deep gold, but evenly colored throughout. After browning the meat, cook the gulyas so slowly that the liquid never boils--just a simmer temperature is best. Cook over an asbestos mat if you are away from the kitchen and cannot watch it frequently. Add only a little hot water from time to time; a large amount will cause your meat to steam and lose its flavor. A medium-sweet paprika is best for most Hungarian dishes unless you prefer very hot food. We use only a mild paprika flavor. Lard is used in Hungary for making gulyas. Sour cream is cheap and easy to buy there and is used in many dishes. (Undiluted evaporated milk plus a tablespoon of lemon juice or vinegar may be substituted).

Music during the mass was furnished by Corpus Christi choir. Nicola Montani's mass "Regina Pacis" was sung and during the offertory "Panis Angelicus" by Cesare Franck was sung by Rose Vieux and chorus as follows: Helen Silveira, Hortense Avilla, Florida Silveira, Lawrence Avilla. Other members of the choir are as follows: Mae Giebs, Ida Moise, Mary Duarte.

P.-T.A. NOTES

P.T.A. HONORS LOCAL TEACHER

NILES--When the Niles Parent-Teachers Association recently donated $25 to the Life Membership Fund of the P.-T. A., they not only honored a local teacher, Miss Louise Inglis, but they became a part of the group which has supplied a total of $40,693 to students who are assisted with scholarships not exceeding $150 each. This is a revolving fund, students re-paying loans and keeping the money perishable and needy students.

According to a recent report by Mrs. Charles Penniman of Oakland, district life membership chairman, the scholarship fund was started with $2250 loaned to ten students in 1927. In 1935 and 36, 41 students were loaned $5,979 and to date, 248 students have been benefited by these scholarships. During the year $1936-37, 74 pupils have been loaned $10,644.

The 16th district of which Washington Township is a part has supplied the largest number of loans of any district in the State or a total of 41 students receiving $5,929.

California is the only state having this P.-T. A. student loan fund.

WOMEN OBSERVE COMMUNION

NILES--Members of De Guadalupe Institute, Y. L. I. held their annual communion at Corpus Christi church, Niles. The members from Niles were hostesses with President Jo Maggiore and Marguerite Crane and Marion Zwissig in charge of arrangements and decorations. About seventy members were present at mass and fifty-five attended the breakfast which was served after mass in the I. O. O. F. hall building. The tables were charmingly decorated in white and gold. During the breakfast a musical program was presented. Lorraine Peterson sang two popular vocal selections accompanied by Isola Moise, both girls being members of the Junior Institute. Master Albert Silva delighted those present with lively accordian numbers.

Music during the mass was furnished by Corpus Christi choir. Nicola Montani's mass "Regina Pacis" was sung and during the offertory "Panis Angelicus" by Cesare Franck was sung by Rose Vieux and chorus as follows: Helen Silveira, Hortense Avilla, Florida Silveira, Lawrence Avilla. TRUE PALS By AVIS ALBERG

SIXTH GRADE--NILES SCHOOL

LATE ONE WINTER FIVE LUMBER MEN WENT INTO A FOREST WITH TWO DOGS, FRISK AND TEBBY. FRISK WAS AHEAD OF THE PARTY. TEBBY WAS FOLLOWING BEHIND HIM. ALL OF A SUDDEN THERE WAS A YELP IN THE DISTANCE. THE MEN DID NOT NOTICE BUT TEBBY HEARD, AND RAN TO WHERE THE SOUND CAME FROM.

WHEN THE MEN STARTED ON THEIR WAY HOME THAT NIGHT THE DOGS WERE MISSING. THEY LOOKED AND DID NOT FIND THEM. IT WAS GETTING LATE. DARKNESS WAS APPROACHING. AS THEY WERE COMING BACK THERE THE NEXT DAY THEY DECIDED TO LOOK FOR THE DOGS THEN, UNLESS THE DOGS CAME HOME THAT NIGHT.

THE NEXT MORNING TEBBY WAS FOUND IN HIS BOX, BUT FRISK WAS NOT TO BE SEEN. WHEN THE MEN REACHED THE FOREST, THEY LOOKED

EVERY WHERE THEY THOUGHT THE DOG MIGHT BE, BUT COULD SEE NO TRACE OF HIM. TWO WEEKS PASSED AND NO SIGN OF FRISK.

ONE DAY ONE OF THE MEN FOUND OUT THAT TEBBY ONLY AT HALF OF HIS DINNER. THE OTHER HALF NO ONE KNEW HE TOOK IT. THE NEXT DAY THEY FOLLOWED HIM AND FOUND FRISK. HE WAS CAUGHT IN A TRAP. TEBBY HAD BEEN FEEDING HIM ALL THAT TIME. THIS SHOWS THAT DOGS CAN BE TRUE TO EACH OTHER, AS WELL AS TRUE TO MEN.

"Here is your party!"

Recent reductions have substantially cut the cost of Long Distance telephone service.

Uniform discount periods for reduced evening and Sunday rates have been placed in effect. Evening and night discount periods now apply from 7 P.M. rather than from 8:30 P.M. to 4:30 A.M. daily--the midnight to 4:30 A.M. discount period having been withdrawn in the interest of good service. These same discount rates are in effect for Sundays and apply from 7 P.M. Saturday to 4:30 A.M. Monday.

It is easier now for far apart friends to keep in close touch. It costs less to do business in distant cities quickly, personally. For business, for pleasure--use Long Distance frequently!

Determined a Newspaper of General Circulation by Decree of the Superior Court (Department 6), of Alameda County, California.

LOCAL OPPOSITION

IN a letter published this issue, a Niles woman gives her arguments against the plan of local boosters to save the existing highway bridge across Alameda creek.

It is seldom that there are not two sides to any question and this is true of the bridge controversy; but we think most of the letter writer's arguments are ill-founded. Granting that grade crossing elimination is a thing to be desired, there is no doubt that the danger of crossing the new, fast highway twice to get into Niles will be a greater hazard.

It is not enough to say that shoppers in Niles now have to cross fast traffic. Once the business visitor is in Niles, he usually parks his car and makes his various calls on foot—just as he does in the large city.

We will let the letter writer an Easter hat, payable the Easter after the new road is open, that there will be more traffic accidents there during the first year than there have been at the rail crossings near Thane's corner during the last five years.

Our correspondent brought the letter into us the other day with the comment that she believed we would refuse to publish it because its sentiments run contrary to our own belief.

We want to repeat that the Township Register's columns are open to anyone who keeps his communications reasonably brief, who is a resident of the township and who expresses his views with a reasonable amount of decency and good taste.

AGE AN ADVANTAGE

The law is a profession which requires long experience. The old lawyer or judge is better fitted for his task than the man with youth. We believe this fact should have some bearing on the current supreme court controversy.

We contend that if 70 is too great age for supreme court service, then so are 65, 50, 45. Even at 45 most men's personalities have crystallized. Their outlooks at that age are already definitely liberal or conservative.

There was more truth than poetry when W. S. Gilbert wrote:

"That every little boy or gal
What is born to this world alive,
Is either a little liberal
Or else a little conservative."

Brickbats

Dear Friends of Niles, and especially of the Eastern Niles:

For some time I have been following your discussion about the removal of the old highway east of town. From the beginning I have disagreed with you, but, because I seemed to be the only person on earth who did, I have not had the temerity to tell you so. Recently I have found others who feel just as I do, who have not dared to up and say so. So here I am as presuming to say it.

I maintain that in this whole discussion there is ONLY ONE issue to be even considered, and that is that GRADE CROSSINGS MUST BE ELIMINATED. There is simply no argument in existence to deny that fact, whether that argument be local or national, selfish or altruistic, personal or commercial. Grade crossings must be eliminated here in Niles, in California, and in the whole of these United States, as they already are, I understand, in England and Germany. Have you ever stopped to consider how you would feel if some day you are forced to realize that you are personally responsible if a school bus, or shall we say our beloved old "Daddy" Hatch, is caught upon one of those crossings? This fact alone simply closes the whole discussion, in my opinion.

But aside from this I disagree with your other arguments. I will mention two. First of all you argue that a driver will have to get out on to the new highway down by Mr. Ellsworth's corner, and then back out of it down at the subway, to get into Niles. Do you not realize that on EVERY highway local towns have to get into traffic and then out of it, no matter WHAT the arrangement? Even here in Niles, with the highway right on our main street, one has to "get into" to get over there to get a block of ice, and then "out of it" to get back here for a loaf of bread. That is a universal state of affairs. You are simply asking that that point of getting into it be transferred from Mr. Ellsworth's corner back to Mr. Field's corner. And you argue that Mr. Field's corner is a "less" dangerous corner. THERE IS NO SUCH A THING as "more" or "less" to a death hazard. And every highway intersection on earth is a death hazard. And every driver of an automobile must drive with that fact constantly in mind if he would continue to drive. I grant you that one may be more or less ALIVE; but one certainly cannot be more or less DEAD.

You also argue that this being something that will affect only local people they will be aware of it, and so be careful, and not come to harm. As the facts stand within the memory of nearly every one of us, this is simply not true. Many years ago Gladys Duffy's beloved Father was caught on a local crossing that he must have crossed on thousand times. Hardly yesterday our beloved little Martha Sanford was caught at her very doorstep. But, EVEN IF IT WERE SO, would you not have to grant the same argument to the State Highway engineers, who could feel in respect to their own job that "it being something that would affect only local people, they will be aware of it, and so be careful?"

I do agree with you on two points. I think the State engineers could have solved the problem better—at considerable expense. They could have put a narrow highway on this west side of the main new highway, for Niles Traffic only.

railing it off from the main highway. Also, I can not for the life of me see why the present highway bridge should be destroyed. It could remain a short cut pedestrian foot way—which would automatically solve the problem of school children who walk, and so save us taxpayers the expense of a school bus.

But, other than these two points, I am sorry, Neighbors, but I disagree with you—and I tell you it takes some courage to disagree with two Chambers of Commerce, a live local paper, and Mrs. Thane, all at once! I grant you that the engineers could have given you a better solution. But I grant you no argument whatever for the retention of a single grade crossing in our wonderful State—much less the retention of TWO, or possibly THREE, grade crossings.

Your Neighbor.

BROADVIEW HILL

Mr. Henry Alderman,
Editor, Township Register,
Niles, California.

Dear Sir:

I still think your department of "Brickbats and Roses" is very fair, and that you are entitled to give your opinions as well as others. It does not seem like fairplay to deny anyone the right of expression, nor to punish any one for that expression. There are always two sides to any controversy, and, under our form of government, a full discussion of an issue is vitally necessary. Our trouble seems to be largely that we have decided many questions not by thinking them out, but by our feelings in the matter, in fact, one might say, by our prejudices in the matter.

We see another side to the argument in re President Roosevelt's reorganization of the Supreme Court. It is not possible to please the people. The Supreme Court has offended a good many people by its decisions, in fact some of the decisions have caused great injury, but to all fair-minded people, the decisions were according to the law and we abided by them and respected the court for its very impersonal and detached conclusions which upheld the fundamental laws of the land.

It looks as though the president was peeved because the court did not declare unconstitutional measures to be constitutional. The forefathers who built this constitution knew from experience what a strongly centralized government might do in abridging the liberties of the people. They provided checks against that curtailment. If anyone will take the time to study what has been going on in Germany, for instance, they will be able to see how easy it is for a Hitler to get unbridled power by a constitutional manner, or rather in a legal manner. We need to be on our guard, for Washington told us that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty" and it will not be the foes without so much as the foes within.

Let us look at the constitution itself for our guidance in this matter. In Article 111, Section 1., it provides "The judicial power of the United States shall be vested in one Supreme Court, and such inferior courts as the Congress may, from time to time, ordain and establish. The judges, both of the supreme and inferior courts, SHALL HOLD THEIR OFFICES DURING GOOD BEHAVIOR."

Section 2 of this article outlines, under three headings, the powers and duties of these courts, giving in most all cases the supreme court only appellate power "both as to law and fact," but adds "with such exceptions and under such regulations as the Congress shall make."

The only provisions for retiring

any of these judges is that they misbehave in their offices. In the present controversy there is no such accusation, unless just being so unwise as to be past seventy years old is misbehavior. We all know what experience comes with age, and we all know that appointments are not made to the Supreme Court until men have had sufficient experience to be able to handle the kind of work this court requires. It is quite possible that some worthy compensation should be allowed to those who wish to retire after having given to this work the benefit of their ripe and mature experience. But the manner in which the president has chosen to go about this is undignified to say the least. These is a way provided in the constitution for any and all vitally needed changes in our fundamental law, let us do this in the proper way; by an amendment to the constitution, if it is needed.

The contention is that it is too slow. That is quite the best thing about it, for it gives us time to really think and arrive at our conclusions after due consideration, and not by mere feeling, or prejudice, or mistaken loyalty to one person, or by the mad impulse of the moment. By all means give the source of all power, the people of the United States, an opportunity to definitely express their will on this very vital subject.

Yours sincerely,
ELIZABETH H. SLOAN

ALVARADO—Nineteen attended the Alvarado Farm Home department meeting held last week at the home of Mrs. V. Enos.

Basic sewing and accessories were demonstrated by the home demonstration agent, Mrs. Myrtle Holman of Hayward.

Plans were discussed for a whist to be given in April. Mrs. E. Vargas, Hayward, and Mrs. M. Lucas, Niles, were guests for the afternoon. Mrs. Geraldine Rogers won the monthly raffle.

The afternoon was concluded with delicious refreshments.

TREE CEREMONY TO BE TUESDAY

CENTERVILLE—Plans for the dedication of a tree honoring the late George C. Roeding, president of the California Nursery Company were made at a meeting of the Country Club of Washington Township on Tuesday. Mrs. R. Whipple, recently appointed chairman of the conservation committee, will have charge.

The tree will be planted in the park east of Niles whenever the weather and ground is right and will be dedicated with a program on April 10. All garden clubs of the Bay section will be invited to attend and there will be a program of music and speaking.

The speaker of the afternoon was Doris May Scudder who discussed Home Gardening and the history of the development of various flowers. The music was by Harriet Downer, soloist, and Ruth Callkit, accompanist.

Announcement was made of the next meeting of the Alameda County Federation to be held on March 25 at the Mont Clair Club. A large delegation from Washington Township will attend as this will be Mrs. Frank T. Dusterberry's last time to preside as president.

The program committee for the afternoon was Mrs. E. C. Dawson, Mrs. O. W. Ebright and Mrs. O. E. Walpert; hostesses, Mrs. O. N. Hirsch, Mrs. George Beardsley, Mrs. E. H. Hirsch, Mrs. Thomas Power and Mrs. R. A. Griffin.
